IV. Activities and experience in the field of human rights

As a solicitor, I practised extensively in the areas of Criminal Law, Immigration and Refugee Law, and Mental Health Law. Among the cases I had carriage of were the following:

- Heaney & McGuinness v. Ireland (2001) 33 E.H.R.R. 12 – as a solicitor, I was closely involved in the preparation of the applicants successful petition to the European Commission of Human Rights under the former Article 25 of the ECHR (although I had no involvement in the conduct of the case before the Court); as a barrister, I subsequently appeared for the same persons in their successful appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal arising from the convictions at issue.
- Kweder v. Minister for Justice [1996] 1 I.R. 361 – for the successful applicant for an Order of certiorari to quash the refusal of the respondent to grant him a visa, which decision was made contrary to EU free movement of persons principles.
- Fakih v. Minister for Justice [1993] 2 I.R. 406 – for the successful applicants for orders restraining their deportation from the State pending the determination of their applications for refugee status pursuant to the UN Convention on the Status of Refugees and Stateless Persons 1951 and the 1967 Protocol thereto.
- Ji Yao Lau v. Minister for Justice [1993] 1 I.R. 116 – as a solicitor's apprentice, I was closely involved in the representation of this successful applicant for habeas corpus on the ground that his detention was not warranted by the terms of the immigration legislation invoked to support it.

While in the office of the Chief State Solicitor, I had carriage of a large case-load involving a variety of private law actions against the State.

My practise at the Bar has been varied and wide-ranging. It has included the following (references are to reported cases only):

- Criminal trials for offences of murder, rape and fraud (as well as the junior brief for the accused in the first ever trial within the State for an offence of insider dealing, which trial resulted in an acquittal).
- Criminal Appeals before the Court of Criminal Appeal. E.g. The People (DPP) v. L.G. [2003] 2 I.R. 517 – for the successful appellant.
- Defamation/Prior Restraint/Privacy actions. E.g. Cogley v. RTÉ [2005] 4 I.R. 79 – for the successful defendant.
- Prosecutions for Criminal Contempt of Court. E.g. D.P.P. v. Independent Newspapers [2003] 2 I.R. 367 – for two acquitted respondents.
- Representation of Interested Parties before Tribunals of Inquiry and Statutory Commissions. For example, I appeared for RTÉ before the Tribunal of Inquiry into Certain Planning Matters and Payment (“the Flood Tribunal”) and the Tribunal of Inquiry into the Facts and Circumstances Surrounding the Fatal Shooting of John Carthy at Abbeylara, County Longford on the 20th April 2000 (“the Barr Tribunal”). I have appeared for more than a dozen respondents before the Commission to Inquire into Child Abuse.
- Proceedings under the Proceeds of Crime Act 1996, as amended. E.g. F. McK. V. F.C. [2001] 4 I.R. 521 – for the successful appellants to the Supreme Court on an interlocutory issue of discovery in the context of the Proceeds of Crime Act jurisdiction. And F.McK v. G.W.D. [2004] 2 I.R. 470 – for the successful appellant to the Supreme Court on a point concerning the proper construction of , and scope of the jurisdiction conferred by, the Act
- Extradition and European Arrest Warrant Act proceedings.
- Applications pursuant to the European Convention on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters 1959 e.g. Creaven –v- Criminal Assets Bureau [2004] 4 I.R. 434 – for the successful appellant to the Supreme Court on a number of issues of construction concerning the power to issue search warrants for the purpose of providing international mutual assistance in criminal matters.
- Judicial Review applications of many kinds.

- Article 40.4.2 Inquiries (habeas corpus applications) in the context of the criminal process and mental health detentions.
- Refugee Status applications and appeals.
- Regulatory prosecutions for several regulators and the defence of such prosecutions. For example, I have prosecuted on behalf of the Data Protection Commissioner and the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment.
- Commercial and private law actions of all kinds.
- Company law and insolvency proceedings. E.g. Re Money Markets International Ltd. [2000] 3 I.R 437 – for the Central Bank in successfully resisting the plaintiff liquidators application for a direction that all creditors were entitled to monies ring-fenced by section 52(5)(a) of the Stock Exchange Act 1995 for client creditors of the insolvent stockbrokers.

OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION

I believe my thirty-three years as a Criminal Practitioner, at every level of the Irish Criminal Court system, have given me a valuable insight into the vital role that human rights concepts can play in such a system. I also believe that such experience has given me the ability to understand and enunciate such rights in a more general way, rather than on behalf of individual clients, important though that is. My experience as a Member of the Irish Human Rights Commission has broadened and deepened my interest in the field of Human Rights.

Dear Mr Secretary General,

With reference to your letter dated 3 October 2007, I have the honour to transmit to you in the appendix the letter presented by Mr. Mahmud Mammad-Guliyev, Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Azerbaijan regarding the new list of candidates in respect of Azerbaijan for the post of judge at the European Court of Human Rights and the curricula vitae of the three candidates.

We would like to note that the Government of the Republic of Azerbaijan put all necessary efforts in order that the whole procedure for selection would satisfy the criteria of transparency, fairness and openness, as well as the balanced representation of women and men.

The candidates are as follows:

Mr KHANLAR HAJIYEV – Judge of the European Court of Human Rights

Mrs AYGUN ABDULLAYEVA – Judge of the Nasimi District Court of the Republic of Azerbaijan

Mr RASHAD HASANOV – Judge of the Azizbeyov District Court of the Republic of Azerbaijan

I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you the assurances of my highest consideration.

Yours sincerely,

XARİCİ İŞLƏR NAZİRİNİN MÜAVİNİ

REPUBLIC OF AZERBAIJAN
DEPUTY MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

№ 6/33-139/02/07

" 27 " 11 2007 il

Dear Secretary General,

I am writing you with reference to your letter dated 3 October 2007, in which you had informed about the Parliamentary Assembly's decision to invite the Government of Azerbaijan to submit a new list of candidates for the post of judge at the European Court of Human Rights.

I should like to note, at the outset, that following this decision the Government of Azerbaijan has repeated the whole procedure for selection of candidates. The request for nomination of candidates was submitted to the Judicial-Legal Council of the Republic of Azerbaijan, an independent body, which inter alia conducts procedure of selection of candidates for the posts of judge at the domestic level, and promotion of judges.

Despite the low level of knowledge of official languages of the Council of Europe among the legal professionals in Azerbaijan, which is undoubtedly affecting the availability of competent candidates, the followed procedure fully satisfied the criteria of transparency, fairness and openness. Moreover, in drawing up the list of candidates all efforts were made to satisfy the criterion for a balanced representation of women and men, and to provide the Parliamentary Assembly with a real choice among the well-qualified candidates.

The Judicial-Legal Council, having regard to the Parliamentary Assembly Resolution 1200 (1999) and Recommendations 1429 (1999) and 1649 (2004) followed the procedure for the selection of the candidates as follows:

- the call for candidates was published anew in the specialised "Adliyye" newspaper, "Adalet" Official gazette of the Ministry of Justice, and on the web-sites of the Judicial-Legal Council, the Supreme Court and the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Azerbaijan;
- 17 candidates have been nominated by the judge's associations, non-governmental organisations, and individually;
- upon expiration of the set deadline, candidates, who met the requirements of the high post of judge of the European Court of Human Rights, were interviewed by the Sub-committee for selection of candidates of the Judicial-Legal Council;
- the list of candidates was submitted to the plenary of the Judicial-Legal Council.

c. Non-legal professional activities

IV. Activities and experience in the field of human rights

Throughout my entire professional career, human rights have been one of the central issues. Acting as a criminal judge in the early stages of a newly established democracy I had to pay major attention to internationally recognized human rights standards in the criminal proceedings which at that time were not yet embedded in our legal tradition – the ECHR, the decisions of the former Commission and judgements of the Court were often the main sources of my reasoning.

One of the main tasks of my work at the Ministry of Justice was the implementation of human rights standards as stipulated in the Convention in Slovenian penal legislation.

As a Council of Europe expert I have usually been engaged in environments where human rights needed to be strongly and consistently (not politically but on an expert level, e.g. by quoting judgements of the ECHR) promoted.

As a director of the preventive anticorruption body I had the opportunity (through monitoring of the functioning of state bodies as well as through hundreds of complaints of citizens) to deal with a wide range of alleged violations of human rights, apart from those exclusively linked to criminal law.

Currently I am directing and supervising investigations of organized crime where as a rule suspects are detained, property is being seized, special investigative means are being used and undercover police activities are being conducted. Jurisprudence of the ECHR is always a firm and reliable orientation in establishing the proper, very subtle balance between the efficiency of the proceedings and respect for human rights of individuals.

I headed Slovenian Delegation during the negotiations and drafting of the UN Convention against Corruption in Vienna.

In the year 2000 I represented Slovenia before the UN Committee against Torture in Geneva.

I was head of Slovenian Delegation to The Council of Europe Steering Criminal Law Committee (CDPC), between 1995 and 2000.
